— November 2018 NSO Participants —

Rachel Dumaresq – Contingent Campus Staff – Free Union, VA

Virginia born and raised, Rachel is one of four sisters, currently residing in Charlottesville. She surrendered her life to Christ at the age of five after realizing her need for a Savior. She has served in different ministry positions—evangelizing on the grounds of local universities, discipling young women, leading prayer meetings, even traveling across North America with an evangelism group. After working with a ministry on Prince Edward Island (Canada) for over five years, Rachel felt like the Lord was calling her to return to Virginia. She has a passion for the Gospel, people, hospitality, traveling, and good Tex-Mex.

John Frost –Contingent Campus Staff – Alpine, TX

“My name is John Frost, and I am married to Carolynn, my wife of 25 years. We graduated in 1997 with degrees in Intercultural Studies. We have six boys and two wonderful daughters (by marriage). In 1998, we moved to Papua New Guinea, where we assisted missionaries reaching tribal groups. We moved in 2002 to Durant, MS, where we trained missionaries for the next three years. I started working full time with a local fire department until 2012, when we move to Alpine, TX to take a position with Paisano Baptist Assembly as their camp superintendent. We continue to serve there.”

Carolynn Frost – Ministry Rep – Alpine, TX

“Hi, my name is Carolynn Frost. I have been happily married to my high school sweetheart (John) for over 25 years. I am a stay-at-home and homeschooling mom. We have six sons and currently live in West Texas, serving as the caretakers of Paisano Baptist Encampment.

“I put my faith in Jesus as my Savior at the age of eight. I was introduced to the concept of world missions when I was just a young girl, and as a teenager felt the Lord leading me into full-time missionary service.

“We have served cross-culturally in Papua New Guinea with New Tribes Mission and also as home staff. We look forward to the opportunity to continue with cross-cultural ministry with ISI.”

Steve (& Lisa) Kindermann – Contingent Campus Staff – Colorado Springs, CO

Eight years ago, Steve attended an ISI event and was amazed at the beauty and challenge of connecting with students from other cultures. He now loves building relationships with international students. Steve and his wife Lisa (ISI staff since 2015) have hosted many events, including bible studies and meals, and have housed international students in their home. The Kindermans have two adult children, Ty and Holly.

Steve is retired after 26 years as a trumpet player with the Air Force Academy Band but continues to play at churches and with various brass groups. Steve is excited to be able to join Lisa in loving the nations for Christ through ISI

Joan (& Jim) Lasche – Ministry Rep – Albuquerque, NM

Joan was raised a farm girl in Kansas. In college, she responded to an invitation to be an American Friendship Partner. Soon after that, she met her husband Jim, who was also involved in international student ministry. Jim’s career change from the military to scientist took them to New York and then to Albuquerque, NM, where they have lived for 20 years. During that time, Joan homeschooled their six children, and she and Jim continued their involvement with international students. Six years ago, Joan became a Ministry Rep and took over as volunteer coordinator for the ISI ministry in Albuquerque. Jim recently retired to also minister full-time. The Lasches have a 16-year-old daughter still in the home. In her spare time, Joan loves to read good books, go camping, and take “walking vacations.”

Josh Olsen – Ministry Rep – Escondido, CA

Josh & his wife Christy desire to flourish in their spiritual gifts by serving God and others in the areas of hospitality and discipleship. Josh has been a pastor for the past 19 years, serving in the areas of teaching, discipleship, prayer, counseling, and outreach. He has done this locally, nationally, and internationally. Josh and his family also served the Lord in northeast China for two years. The Olsens believe God has called them to “reinvest all that He has blessed us with in the work of the Kingdom.” They are now doing this by sharing the love of Christ with international students.

Lisa Voth – Contingent Campus Staff – Spokane, WA

“I’m thankful to have been raised in a Christian family, with a godly heritage on both sides. I grew up in Oklahoma, and my family moved to Eastern Washington when I was in junior high. I’ve pursued missions since college, including short-term trips to Thailand and Mexico, and bible translation in Cameroon. After spending 2013 there, my desired field team closed, but God opened my heart to working with Muslims. I now live in Spokane, where I befriended a Saudi student and mobilized churches to reach Muslims. ISI team member Valerie Althouse (a friend from a former organization) invited me to check out ISI.”

Del & Sherry Walth – Guests – San Tan Valley, AZ

Del and Sherry Walth are beginning a new ministry as the administrators of Ponca Bible Camp, in Ponca, AR. They have served together in ministry for nearly thirty years.

Charles Wolf – Contingent Campus Staff – Edgewood, NM

Charles was born and brought up with three siblings on a small farm in Wisconsin, where they were raised as Roman Catholic. In his mid-twenties, Charles met a philosophy professor who introduced him to a deeper way of thinking that eventually led to his search to understand the Creator. At age 29, it became obvious to Charles that God had a bigger plan for his life. Soon afterwards, God led him to his future wife, Judy, and they were married in 1999. Judy's degrees in social sciences and intercultural management, as well as Charles' ESL training, prepared them to serve as church planters for 12 years in Africa, where they raised two sons, Noah and Solomon. Upon returning to the US this year, and with both sons either in college or working toward college, Charles felt God leading him to work with internationals.
